

Date: Monday, June 22, 2015, 7:42 AM

> Good morning everyone hope you had a great > weekend.
>
> I don't know if > everyone is aware but
> "The Wall" (Middle East Conflicts War Memorial)
> located in Marseilles, > IL is honored every year on the third Saturday of > June.
>
>
>
> Unfortunately due to the > weather this > past few weeks the ride was not allowed to go to Marseilles > where the Memorial > resides because they were asked last Wednesday to > voluntarily evacuate
> the town due to the swollen waters of the Illinois river.
> There were thousands > of bikes and attendees. Below are just a few pictures from > my bike and > panned 180' forward to back going left. Looking to my > right was an additional > 6 rows of bikes which there were no pictures. The ride was > Police escorted > and all roads were blocked until the many miles of bikes > passed to their > final destination.
>
>
>
>
>
>
> Thanks
>
> John
> Shimkus

